

District E-Signer Guidance: Verifying Training for Coaching (Pupil Activity) Permits

There are four required trainings for those who hold coaching (pupil activity) permits: fundamentals of coaching; cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training; first aid for coaches; and concussion training. Districts are responsible for verifying that permit holders – and those who apply for permits through the online CORE system – have valid trainings and certifications. With each CORE application, the e-signer’s electronic signature signifies official district verification of the applicant meeting the requirements.

Districts must decide how they want to verify that trainings are valid. The Ohio Department of Education encourages districts to have applicants or coaches provide verification to the district that these trainings are completed and are current. Except for fundamentals of coaching, which is a one-time requirement, the expiration dates for the other trainings vary. Please note, some trainings will expire before the expiration of the coaching permit. In addition to verifying the trainings through documentation provided by the coach, some trainings provide an online resource to verify completion. Where available, this information is included below.
